

The 2026 Tamil Nadu Election Marked a Structural Political Realignment

Nearly 70% of constituencies changed winning parties, reshaping the state's political landscape.

234

Seats in Assembly

96M

Votes Cast

69.7%

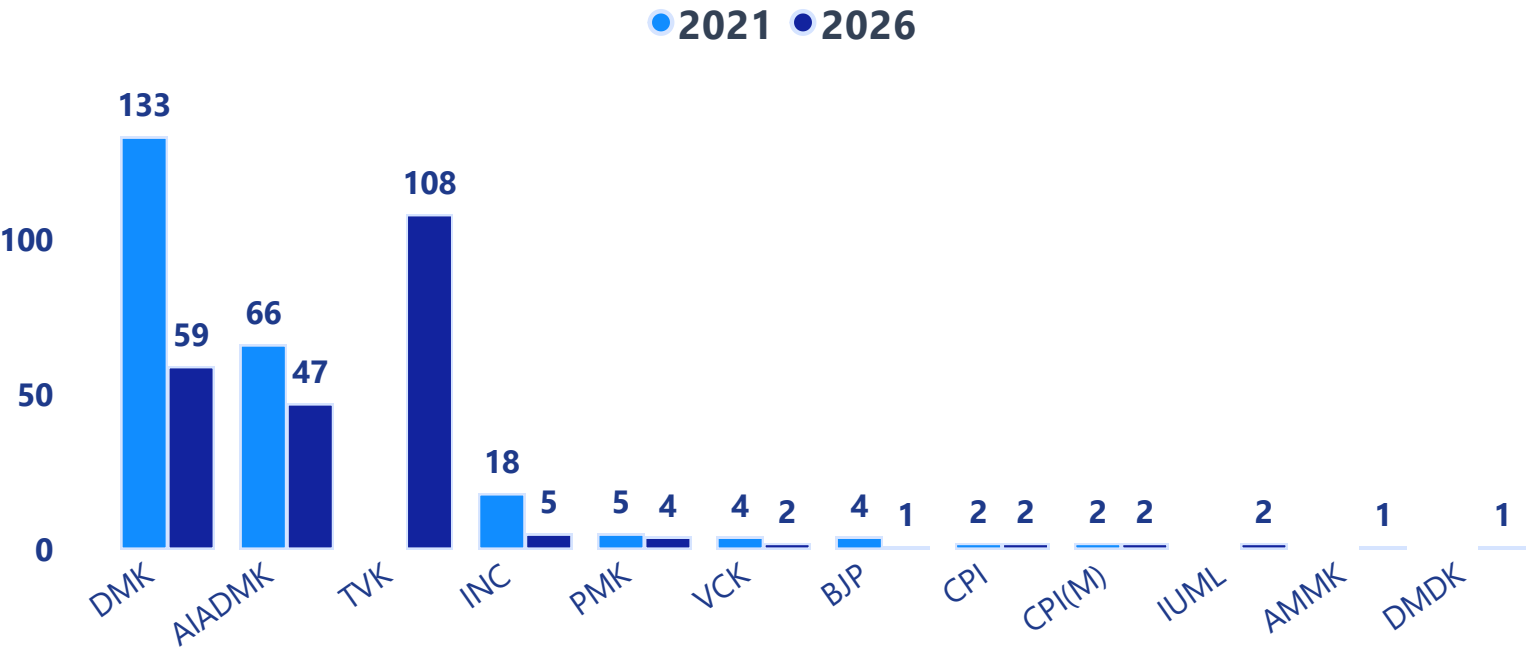

Political Shift

30.3%

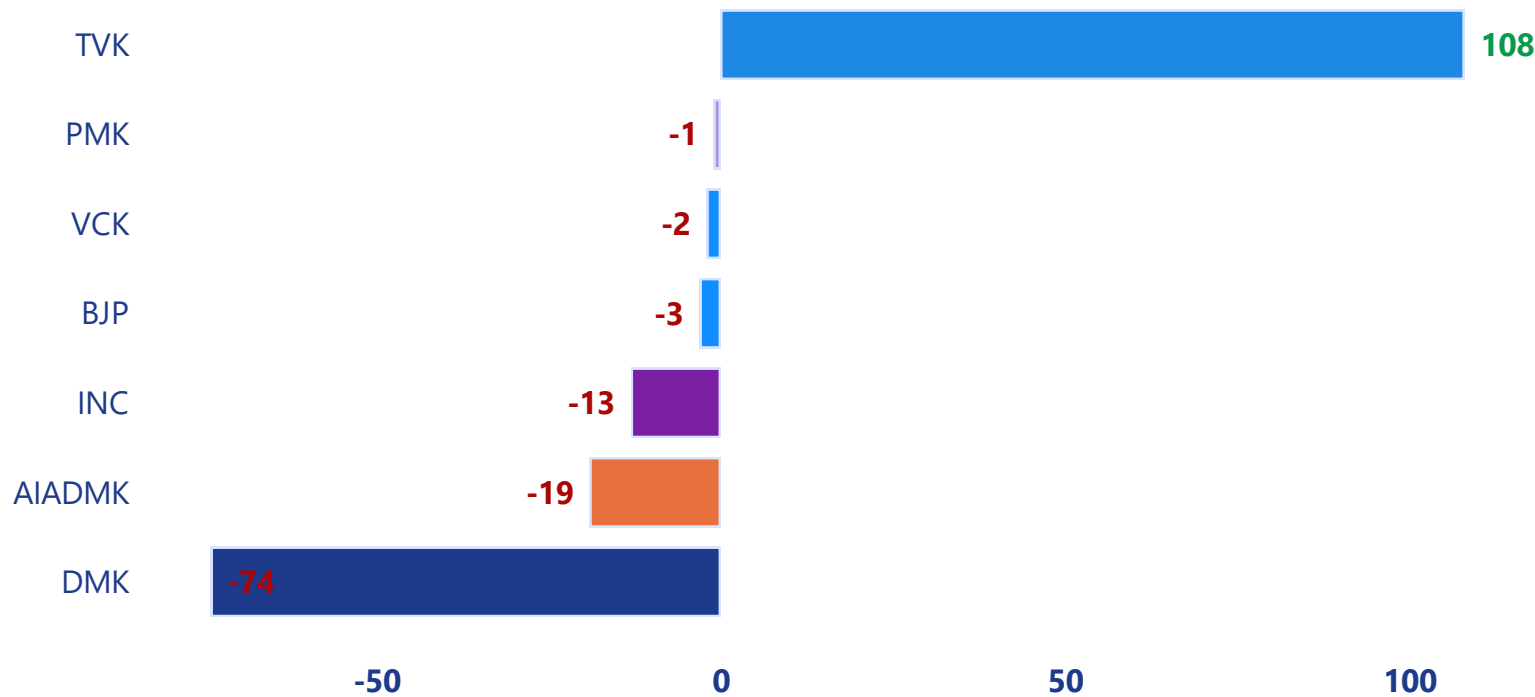

Seats Retained

Party Performance Comparison

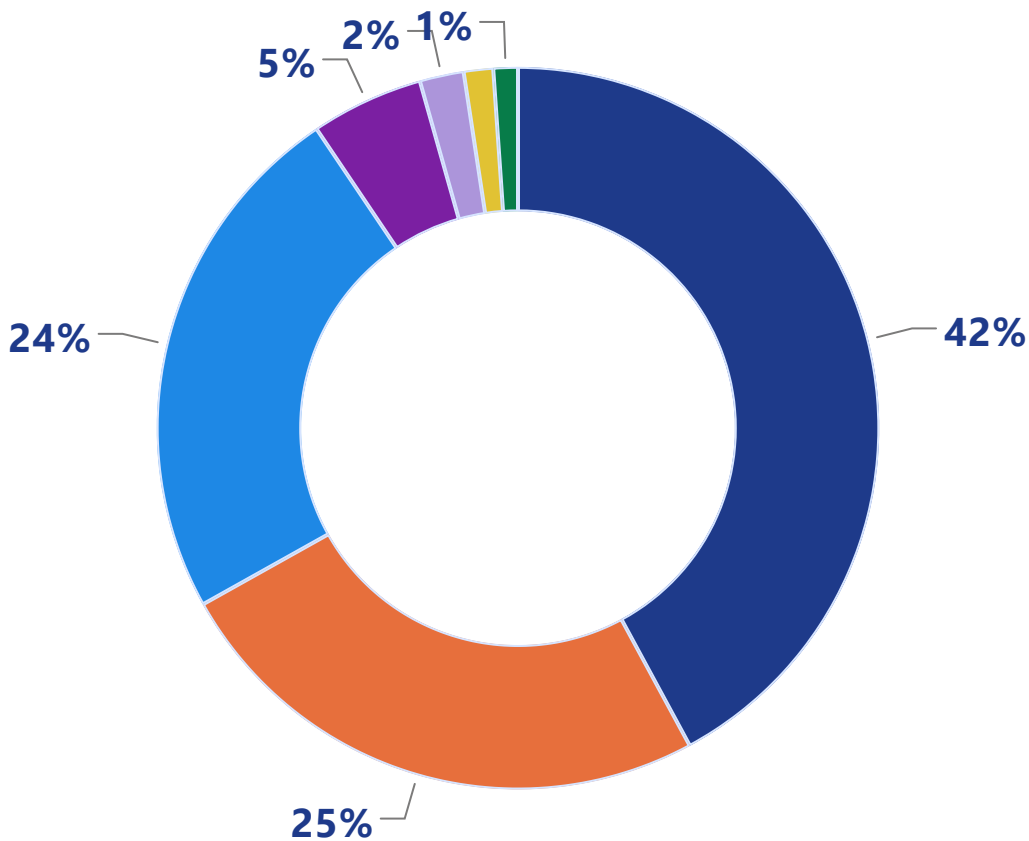

Seat Gains and Losses by Party

🏆 TVK +108 Seats | 📉 DMK -74 Seats

Assembly Seat Share (2026)

● DMK ● AIADMK ● TVK ● INC ● PMK ● VCK ● BJP

Party Fortunes Shifted Dramatically Between the Two Elections.

Explore how vote strength, seat wins and electoral performance evolved for individual parties.

ElectionYear

2021

2026

Select Party

AIADMK

26M

Party Votes

27.05%

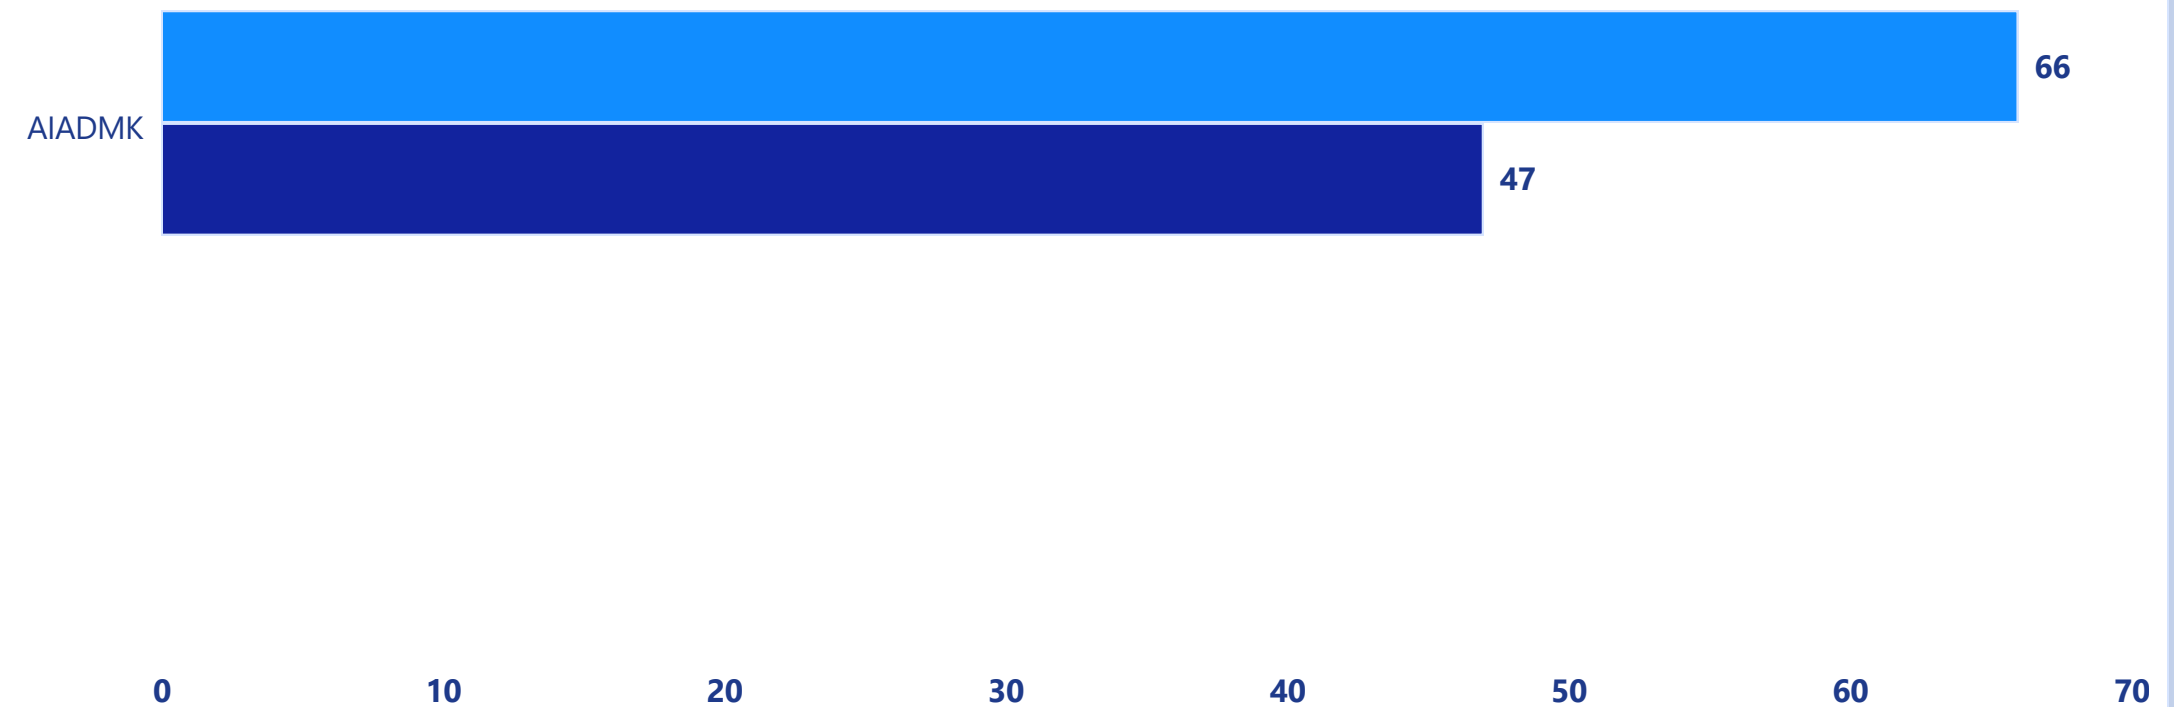

Vote Share Selected Party

113

Seats Won

Seats Won Comparison

● 2021 ● 2026

Electoral Change Was Uneven Across Tamil Nadu's Regions

Regional strongholds shifted considerably, revealing distinct geographic patterns of political change.

Select Party

AIADMK

region

All

6

Total Regions

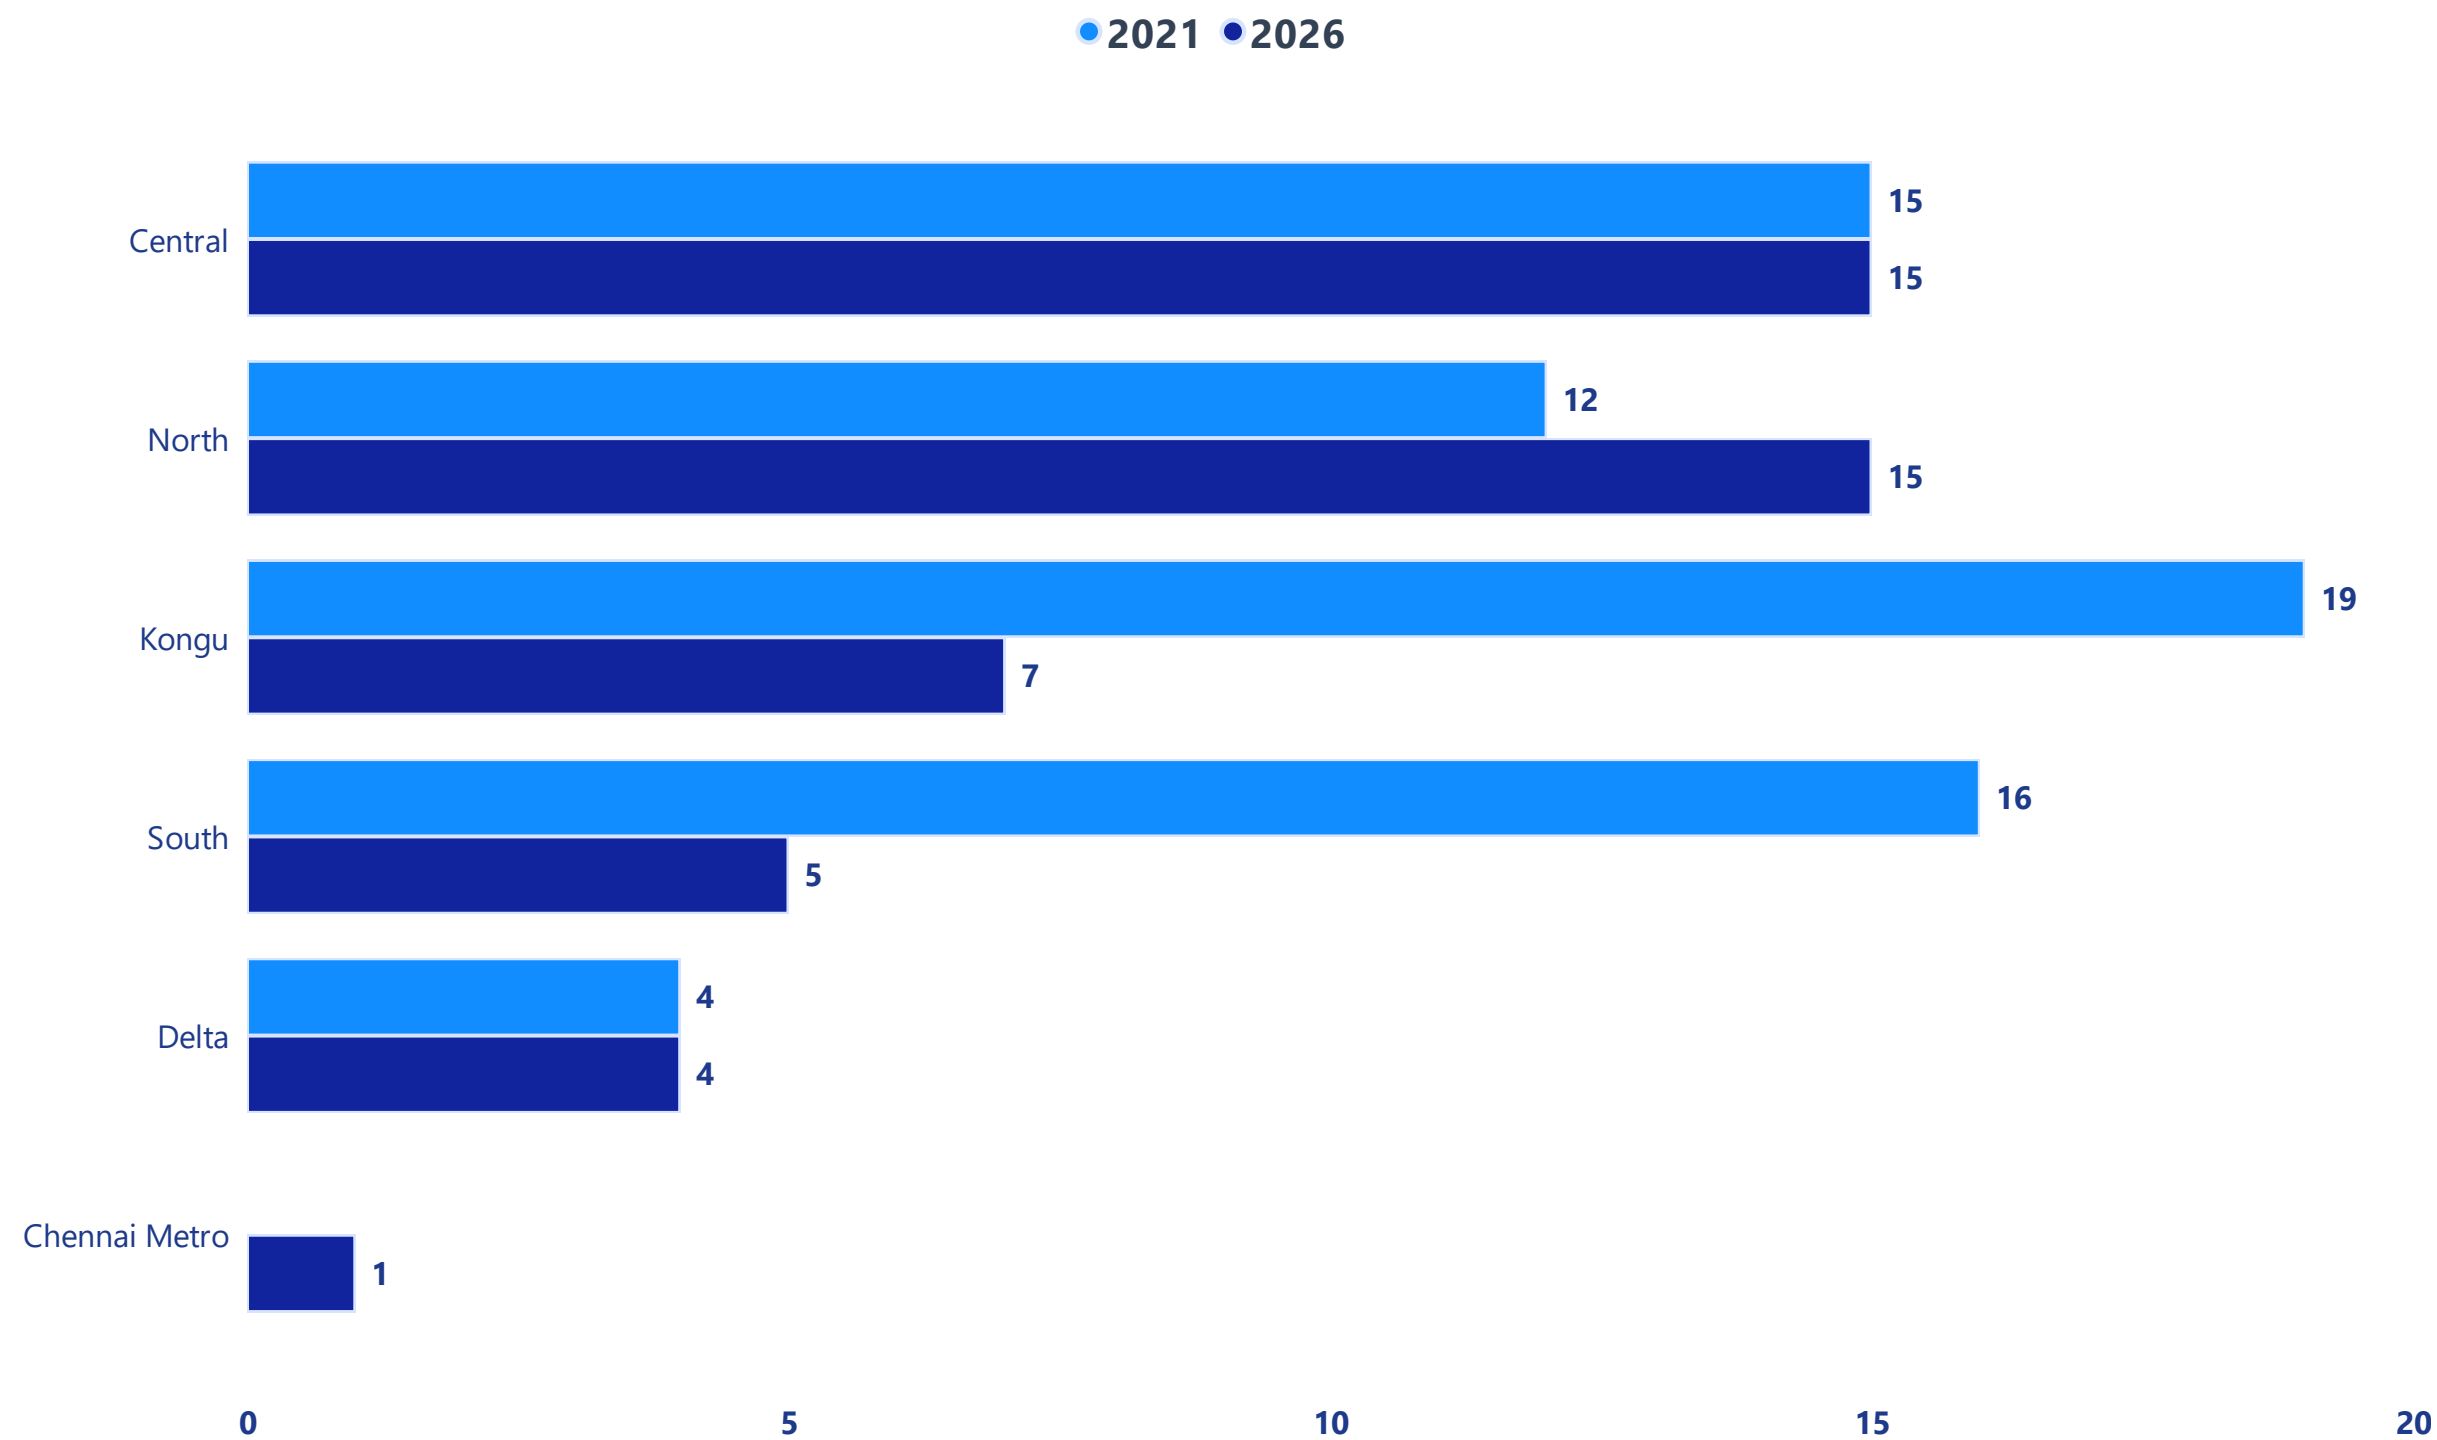

66

Seats Won 2021

47

Seats Won 2026

Regional Seat Distribution Shift (2021 vs 2026)

Nearly Seven in Ten Constituencies Changed Their Winning Party

163 constituencies flipped between 2021 and 2026, making it one of the most significant electoral shifts in recent history.

of 69.7%.

69.7%

Electoral Volatility

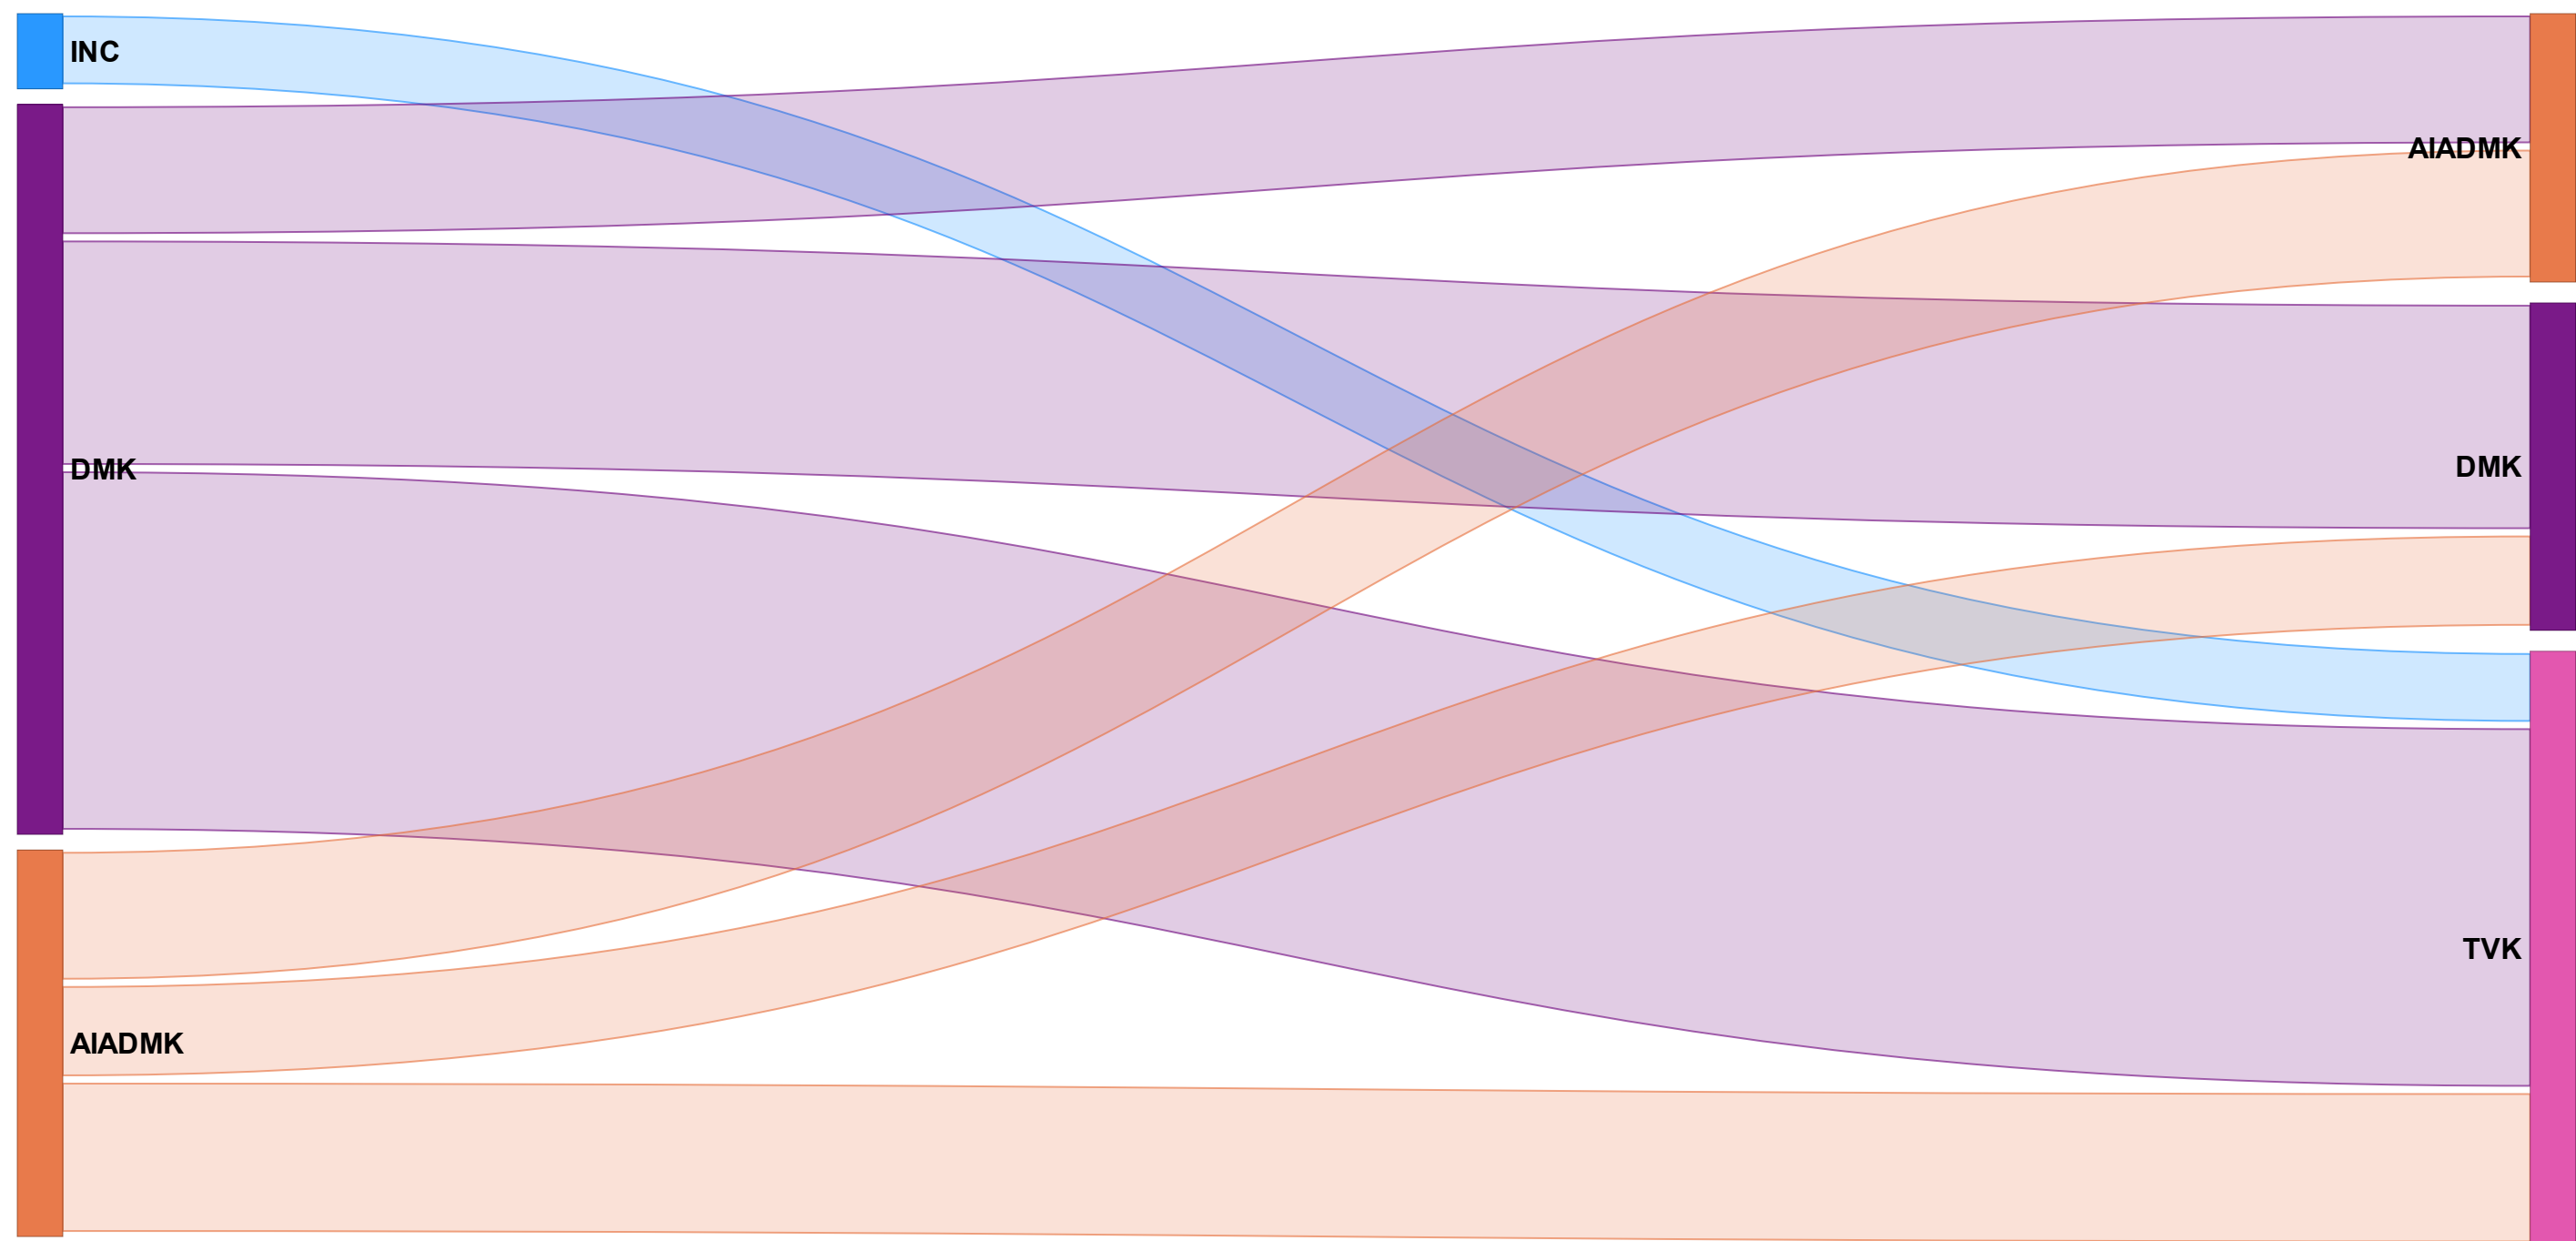

163

Seats Changed Party

71

Seats Retained

Constituency Winner Shifts (2021–2026)

The 2026 Election Became Significantly More Competitive.

Average victory margins fell from 11.7% to 7.7%,
while many constituencies witnessed tightly contested races.

11.70%

Average Margin 2021

7.67%

Average Margin 2026

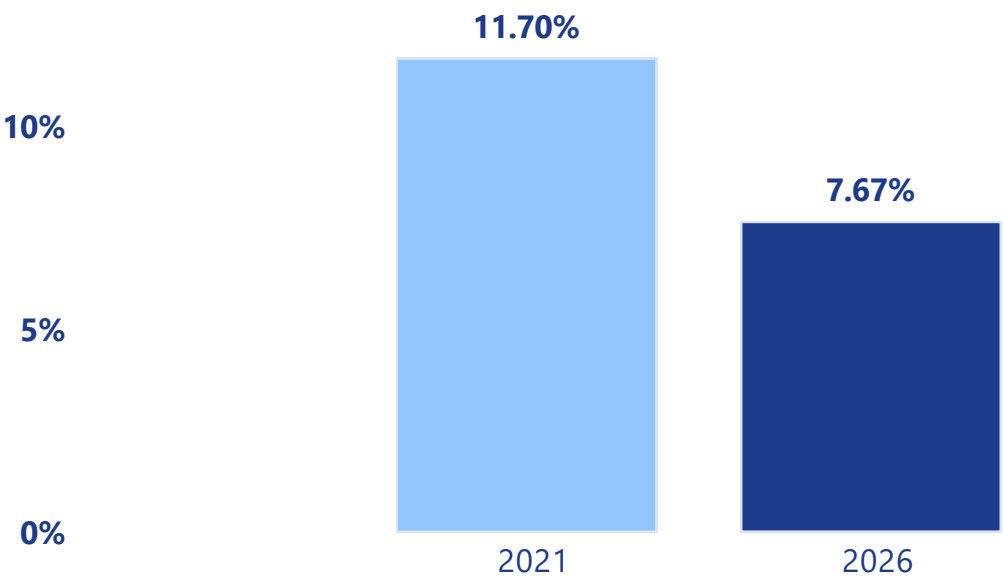

83

Strong Mandates (>50%)

66

Fragmented Wins (<35%)

Average Victory Margin Comparison

Top 20 Closest Contests

